Conduct Covenant (for ALL Students / Young Adults / Youth Workers / Staff)

- I will not leave the Manchester College campus during FUEL without adult supervision and permission from the FUEL office.
- I know that guys can't be in girls-only areas, and girls can't be in guys-only areas. I'll stay on the right track by staying in the right rooms. After all, I was born this way. Baby.
- I will not possess, use, or sell alcohol, tobacco, illegal drugs, locks of Justin Bieber's hair, or tiger blood. #winning. #MaybeNot.
- I will not mess with anyone's body, mind, or belongings. This includes, but is not limited to, their collections of duct tape tapestries and evening wear.
- I will show up at all meals, classes, and sessions, do my best to be there on time, and I won't attempt to bury a director in the sundae bar.
- I will not possess, use, or sell fireworks, weapons, explosives, falconry equipment, unlicensed transmogrifiers, or large quantities of fiberglass.
- I will report any injury to the nearest adult immediately. If that adult faints at the sight of the injury, I will find the 2nd nearest adult and pray for better results.
- I realize they are called undergarments for a reason, so I'll keep them and their contents covered. Yes, that means both guys and girls.
- I will treat FUEL and Manchester College staff with respect, cooperate with them, and obey all rules and expectations. And I won't sing "Friday." At all.
- I will try to have fun, and I will stay safe by not getting between a full-grown The Cheat and it's Diet Mountain Dew*. Ever.

* Ranger Addendum 2: The Wrath of Jahn - the forest ranger is not responsible for any injuries or fatalities precipitated by careless behavior of participants resulting in violent The Bear attack. Or from children saying "Go on up, bald one" to old, balding guys. Read your Bible. It's in there.

For Participant & Parent / Guardian

It is important that the covenant is understood, because that helps everyone have a better week. If I determine that the covenant guidelines are not important and am found breaking them, I will be dealt with by members of the FUEL staff. If the problem is serious enough, the FUEL staff has the option of sending me home at my parent/guardian's expense . . . even if that means buying a plane ticket.
